

A prominent Southern lady, Mrs. Blanchard, of Nashville, Tenn., tells how she was cured of backache, dizziness, painful and irregular periods by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Gratitude compels me to acknowledge the great merit of your Vegetable Compound. I have suffered for four years with irregular and painful menstruation, also dizziness, pains in the back and lower limbs, and fitful sleep. I dreaded the time to come which would only mean suffering to me. Six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me health and happiness in a few short months, and was worth more than months under the doctor's care, which really did not benefit me at all. I feel like another person now. My aches and pains have left me. I am satisfied there is no medicine so good for sick women as your Vegetable Compound, and I advocate it to my lady friends in need of medical help."—Mrs. B. A. BLANCHARD, 432 Broad St., Nashville, Tenn.—$5000 for full original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

When women are troubled with menstrual irregularities, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ARREST

OF FORMER CLERK HUMPHREY OF CROTON

Claimed His School Book Account is $100 Short—Mr. Humphrey Has Explained It.

Croton, O., Dec. 2.—Ernest Humphrey, a former township clerk of Hartford, who was arrested at Portsmouth, O., yesterday, on the charge of embezzlement, has been brought here by Marshal L. C. Payne.

The amount involved is about $100. Mr. Humphrey who for some time has been employed in Portsmouth, was arrested at the suggestion of his bondsmen. It is alleged that his school text book account is $100 short, but in talking of the matter to the Advocate today Mr. Humphrey said that the school board had given books away to poor children and had returned certain books to the publishers and that the records do not show such disposition of the books. He alleges that his accounts are straight.

The school board meets tomorrow night to consider the case. It is thought this afternoon that there will be no prosecution.

A NERVOUS AFFLICTION That Frequently Ends In Death

The Victim After Failures With Other Medicines is Cured by

PAINE'S Celery Compound

Paine's Celery Compound has acquired its famous reputation by its wonderful and decisive victories over disease and suffering. Paine's Celery Compound supplies strength and energy to those who are low from nervousness and physical exhaustion. It builds up the weakened nervous system, makes the blood pure and rich, establishes a perfect action of the heart, gives natural sleep and digestive vigor.

Lucy Regaladez, 42 Abasco St. Monterey, Mexico, who was in a critical condition of health owing to nervous suffocation, was providentially saved by Paine's Celery Compound after vain attempts to procure a cure with other medicines; she writes as follows:—

"I feel very grateful for the good which Paine's Celery Compound has afforded me. Before using it I had been suffering for some time from nervous suffocation which prevented me from sleeping, speaking, or eating. If I attempted to take a meal, I was obliged to stand in order to breathe. After the use of various remedies which brought no relief, my uncle Mr. Dias, advised me to try Paine's Celery Compound, which I did, and found immediate relief. I took six bottles of it and now I am completely cured. Thanks to the Compound."

AMUSEMENTS.

During the days of the gold fever in California in '49, cities of mushroom growth were of frequent occurrence. Being abnormal they collected a class of citizens who, in the main, were only satisfied by its possession, no matter how acquired. In many instances the click of a rifle, the swish of a dirk, or the sickening thud of a bludgeon settled titles to mines and gold dust that would have taken years by the ordinary process of law.

Miners returning from the hills with their store of gold were frequently decoyed into disreputable grogeries, furnished drugged liquor, robbed, beaten and left for dead. Every scheme known to the vicious and lawless was used until justice became a byword and reproach.

At this opportune time there was established in Santa Barbara a mission of the Franciscan Fathers. From its inception the majority of its work was for the benefit, guidance and instruction of the miners. Many a poor soul who had suffered privations until he accumulated "his pile" was saved from robbery or death by these good old monks. Many a miner on the verge of starvation was helped until he struck pay dirt by these same fathers. In sickness, death, accident or whatever cause they never failed for humanity's sake. From this historical mission its branches have spread until they are now established in nearly every city of prominence in the country, while their good deeds are counted among the millions.

A faithful copy of the old mission will be reproduced in "A Mother's Heart," which will be produced at the Auditorium tomorrow night, December 3. This great scene marks the closing of one of the most thrilling dramas.

PERMANENT DEVIL'S AUCTION. In the twenty-first edition of Chas. H. Yale's "Exhausting Devil's Auction" there is one scene that introduces a fantastic ballet, which will be a most delectable novelty. The costumes for this scene were imported from Paris the handwork of the great Felix and are as attractive as they are novel. The ladies' dresses are beautifully embroidered in white silk, depicting the humorous side of a cat's life, which in its entirety illustrates a story.

Among the pensioners on Chas. H. Yale's staff is an old decrepit English bull dog, who has for a decade been "Queen of all she surveyed" and a privileged character. When these new dresses were unpacked one was held up for inspection and every one spoke in the highest terms of admiration, with one exception, Nellie, the English bull. She flew into a paroxysm of rage at sight of the cats and it was all her master could do to quiet her. Manager Yale finally led her away. Nellie saying emphatically "I never could endure a cat nohow." At least this was Manager Yale's interpretation of Nellie's remarks. At the Auditorium Saturday night, Dec. 6.

Rheumatism, Colds, Coughs Weak Chest, Weak Back Lumbago, Sciatica, &c., &c.

If you want the best results, the quickest and cleanest cure, use Alcock's Plasters. They are superior to belladonna, which is the extract of deadly nightshade, a violent poison, and never should be used except by direction of a physician. Alcock's Plasters contain no poisons. They cure by absorption. Absolutely curative, perfectly harmless. Read letter from Prof. Henry A. Mott, the eminent chemist.

My investigation of Alcock's Plasters shows it to contain valuable and essential ingredients, and that it is a better plaster, and I find it superior to and more efficient than many other plasters.
